Hey Simran,

Would 6:00 pm this Friday work for you?

Thanks,

Kyle

Hey Simran,

We are having our weekly meeting tomorrow, so we could show you during that at 5:30 pm on Wednesday if that works. If not we can always set up another day.

Thanks,

Kyle Rennie

Hey Simran,

We had our meeting this week so I can give you some updates on how everyone is doing in the project. Wasek has finished all of the back end server-side work. Matt and I are working on using Wasek's API to send data between the server and front end and we are almost done. All the HERE maps stuff is done other than finishing up a few things with tracking the bus. Trevor has created the fake bus bot and is in the server ready to use, but just needs to be displayed on the map still. Ini had some issues with the UI because he had his apartment flooded and had to move. However, he believes he can get everything done in time. I think we could have a lot to show you next week if you would like to set up a meeting some time.

Thanks,

Kyle Rennie.
